Murdock Stadium Scene Of Clash Between Two Area Gridiron Giants

El Camino College gridiron men clash with Harbor College at Murdock Stadium for the Warrior Homecoming football game on Saturday at 2 p.m.

El Camino has won seven and lost an equal number of homecoming games since 1947. In its first homecoming, El Camino ran over Santa Barbara, winning 40-0. That year the Warriors finished third in the conference. Les Kazarian was All Southern California J.C. tackle, and Dick Contreras was All Metropolitan Conference halfback.

WARRIOR WIN

In last year's Homecoming game against East Los Angeles College, Warrior Dave Anderson carried the ball over early in the first quarter. The Ron Veres-Paul Burelson aerial combo played an important part in the El Camino victory. This was the first win for the Warrior grid crew on Homecoming in four years. At the end of the '60 season Ron Veres was chosen All American J.C. quarterback, second team, and All Metropolitan Conference quarterback. Paul Burelson was named All Metropolitan Conference end with Warriors Jim Hester, end, and Joe Constanza, guard, making the second team All-Metro Conference.

Turkeys, Turkeys, Turkeys for the holidays is the shout from the bowlers from now to Thanksgiving at Gable House.

GHBA TOURNAMENT

The Gable House Bowl Association had their turkey shoot singles handicap tournament Sunday afternoon. Among the 34 present, six were the lucky ones to win the birds. The winnings were based on two hidden numbers, two high series, and two high games.

Two hidden numbers of 470 and 317 were won by Flo Lewis with a 468 and Bob Emerich with a 322.

High series were won by Anne Keifert, 698, and Fran Phillips, 664. High games included Chester Wille, 253, and John Cordes, 241.

The tom and hen turkeys were given to the winners right on the spot. I guess with the wrapped frozen birds looking at the bowlers it gave the members an extra boost to try a little harder. Win or lose, everyone had a good time.

The Turkey Shoot is in full swing at Gable House, but so far there aren't too many winners. Lou Kohlmeier, George Handy and Ray Millard are the only ones who have won the "birds."

Say gals, are you going to take this? Get busy this week during league and sign up with Jack Frybaum at the front desk and win yourself a bird. The cost is 50 cents a game.

All you need do is roll strikes in the third, sixth, and ninth frames and you have won. It may sound hard to do, but it really isn't—this reporter has seen it done. Let's see a long list of winners for next week's column.

RAISES FUNDS

The 50 and Over Bowling Club had their first fund raising activity last Sunday. Vickie and Sterling Walter of 14867 Suro Ave., Gardena, hosted a barbecue for the members. Some 40 people were able to attend the feast.

The menu consisted of two top sirloin roasts fixed in Hawaiian sauce, cole slaw, old fashioned baked beans, and pumpkin pie. (Anyone drooling?)

Since there was so much food, there were five homemade pies left over, so Ruth Caudle auctioned them off and that money went into the club fund.

The ladies on the party committee (Bea Freiberger, Viola Hill and Vickie Walter) really deserved a big pat on the back as the get-together was a huge success.

The evening concluded with some playing cards and the others sitting comfortably chatting.

About 12 ladies in this club, as mentioned in a previous column, visited the Art Linkletter TV program last Friday. They didn't get on the air, but after the program Mr. Linkletter came over to ask about the blue and gold shirts the ladies were wearing. He asked them if it was the fifteen and over club but was reassured it was "fifty." The group then spent the rest of the afternoon at the Farmers Market.

HIGH SCORERS

There may not have been too many turkey winners to start last week, but there were some good scores shot. Jan Kita, a gal Junior bowler, shot a 244 in open play. Behind her came K. Liggett, Sunsetters, 209, and Joyce Williams, Douglas Aircraft, 201.

Split converters were Marg Sordal, Bowling Bags No. Two, 6-7-10, and Norma Wright, Sandbaggers, 4-7-10. Ester Farber rolled a 129-130-131 ladder.

Men scores included Dale L. Stockhouse, National Supply, 268, and C. Marshall, 253.

High Junior keglers were Bob Trembath, 240, and Ron West, 226 in a match game. Others were Steve O'Brien, 251; Dan Bowman, 212; and Ray Martin, 201.

GREAT WESTERN SINGLES

Bowlers are getting into the swing of competing in the Great Western Singles handicap tournament which is now under way at Gable House.

First week winners are as follows: $40, $20, $10 for the winners of high series, second high series, and high game. "A" Division—H. Peabody, 688; C. Costello, 675; V. Prinz, 282. "B" Division—Y. Tomono, 678; D. Chambers, 640; J. Evans, 251.

Results of last week's winners will appear in Sunday's column. Remember, you have until December 3 to enter and the cost is 3.75. Come on, let's be a Gable House winner.

Torrance Driver Ranks Among Top Money Winners

Rufus Jones is home. And he's a big man now.

Better known as Parnelli, the 27-year-old Torrance race driver left California seven months ago to join the rigorous United States Auto Club racing circuit, including Indianapolis.

He's returned a hero, no doubt about that, and a national champion, as well.

It's in his newest role—champion—that Parnelli makes his triumphant return.

He's the lead in a strong cast which J. C. Agajanian has assembled for Saturday night's final USAC sprint car event at Ascot Park. Parnelli is king of the country's sprint car pilots.

Jones won the crown in a torrid three-way scrap with A. J. Foyt of Houston, the Indianapolis 500 winner, and Jim Hurtubis of Lennox, the fastest man in Indianapolis Speedway history (149.592 mph for one lap).

The three of them go at it again Saturday night at Ascot in a 40-lapper.

"It's been a good year for me," said Parnelli. "And with a little luck in the big cars it could have been a great year. But don't misunderstand. I'm not complaining. I got my share of luck in the sprints."

The year's big money winner, of course, is Foyt—something like $90,000 from purse winnings of $175,000.

Torrance Pop Warner Leaguers Win Three, Drop Two Over Weekend

Torrance Vikings, pee-wee division, defeated the Redondo Beach Yellowjackets, 13 to 0.

George Ray scored for the Vikings on a one yard plunge. The second Torrance TD came on a 17 yard run by Dan Pritchett. PAT was scored by George Ray.

Torrance Oilers lost a close one to the Hawthorne Scorpions 12 to 9. Jimmy Fox scored the Oiler TD on a four yard plunge through center while Tony Walchler scored the PAT. Mike Abrams tackled a Scorpion player behind his goal line for a safety.

In the midget division, the Torrance Chargers squeezed by the Redondo Beach Chargers, 9 to 7. Terry Tiedeman scored the Torrance TD on a one yard line buck while John Hoettger tackled a Redondo ball carrier behind their goal line for a safety.

Torrance Steelers trounced the Hawthorne Wasps, 35 to 13 with Danny Kling scoring three TDs for the Steelers on runs of nine, 10, and 17 yards. Other Steeler scores came on TD runs of four yards by David Smith and a six yard run by Bob Cano. Steeler PATs were scored by Bob Cano (4), Bruce Cooke (1) and Bill Sorenson (1).

In the bantam division, the Torrance Blue Devils lost to Baldwin Hills, 32 to 20. Steve Ferguson scored first for the Blue Devils on a 30 yard run. Second Torrance TD came on a five yard pass play, Fred Schwanbeck to Mike Kimpel. Fred Schwanbeck hit the line for two yards and the third Blue Devil TD. Torrance PATs were scored by Gary Musick.

Parnelli Jones Heads Saturday's Field at Ascot

National champion Parnelli Jones of Torrance and Indianapolis winner A. J. Foyt of Houston head a crack field—best ever assembled in the southland—Saturday night in the year's final USAC championship sprint car race at Ascot Park in Gardena.

A corps of Indianapolis veterans has been attracted for the 40-lap title event by racing director J. C. Agajanian, including the top five sprint car drivers in the United States.

Jones already has cinched the 1961 championship, narrowly beating out Jim Hurtubis of Lennox and Foyt in a tight battle through 22 races across the country.

40 DRIVERS

At least 40 drivers, most of them from the USAC championship circuit, will be in the lineup.

In addition to the "big three" other chief threats in pursuit of the guaranteed $5,000 purse are fourth-ranked Elmer George of Speedway, Indiana, and fifth place Roger McClusky of Tucson.

Several other "Indy" campaigners will be on hand, including Al Keller of Green Acres, Fla., fifth at Indianapolis; Bobby Marshman of Pottstown, Pa., co-rookie of the year which he shared with Jones; Don Davis, Phoenix and Jimmy Davies of Monticello, Ind., the 1960 and '61 national midget champion.

A seven event program over the half-mile Ascot speedway will get under way at 7 p.m.

Skin Diving Firemen Will Battle Harbor Blazes

Los Angeles County Department of Parks and Recreation has embarked on a training program for skin divers who will assist the City of Los Angeles Fire Department in fighting Harbor fires.

Supervisor Burton W. Chace, who represents the Harbor areas throughout Los Angeles County, announced today that the County's underwater safety instructors are now conducting classes in scuba diving for City Firemen at Fort MacArthur in San Pedro.

The final session will be a practical test in the waters off Catalina Island.

Prompted by the experience of the Matson Dock fire of several years ago, the classes were developed by Assistant Los Angeles Fire Chief William W. Johnston, Jr., executive officer of the Bureau of Personnel, Training and Civil Defense.

Approximately 200 Los Angeles firemen are being trained in the use of scuba diving equipment for underpier and dock fire fighting. The first class began on October 18, and the second class will begin November 14, Supervisor Chace said.

Scuba diving involves the use of self-contained underwater breathing apparatus which is worn by divers to provide air for extended underwater work.

The International Association of Fire Chiefs has recognized scuba diving fire fighters as practical and efficient in fighting fires under docks, Supervisor Chace said, and has assigned a representative to participate in the training now being given at Fort MacArthur.

Firemen who complete the training program as qualified divers will be certified by the underwater safety section of the County Parks and Recreation Department.

Drag Racing Title Up for Grabs

No. 2 spot in the national drag ratings will be on the line when Tom McEwen of Long Beach and Connie Kalitta of Detroit meet this Saturday night at Lions Drag Strip in Long Beach.

Match will be a best out of three affair that will be run in addition to the regular top eliminator program.
